Vesha Ritual

The Deities of Jagannath, Balabhadra and Subhadra are adorned with cotton and silk fabrics, flowers of different varieties, Tulsi leaves, sandal paste, and camphor. The frequency of changing Vesha (Alankār) depends upon the various puja rituals performed during the year.

The Odisha community of HTCC are organizing the Vesha puja periodically. During Māgha Māsa the deities are adorned with winter clothes. In addition to bhajans, cultural programs are planned.

Join us with family and friends and celebrate the Viśeśa 'Vesha' pūja/rituals and obtain the blessings of Lord Śri Jagannātha.
