Śrī Vāsavi Kanyakā Parameswari

Śrī Vāsavi Kanyakā Parameswari is the "Kula Devatha" or the community goddess of the Vysya community in southern regions of India. Śrī Kanyakā Parameswari Vasavi Ātmārpana Day – is the day on which Goddess Vasavi Devi had left her physical body and became united with the Lord. And through "Atma Samarpana", the Goddess communicated the powerful message that "Common Good is greater than individual benefit..."

This year at HTCC, the community has joined together to commemorate Ātmārpana Day, with prayers to Goddess Vasavi Devi.

Join us together, with family and friends and take part in the Sāmūhika Pūja and obtain Śrī Vāsavi's blessings.
