HTCC is pleased to invite you and your family on the occasion to celebrate the Glory of Saint Tyāgarāja

The world of Carnatic music owes a lot to Saint Tyāgarāja (18th century composer), for the treasure that he has bestowed on music lovers. His works are of delicate spirituality, with full of melodic beauty. He wrote his first song when he was hardly 13. Soon he reached the loftiest pinnacle of musical fames and composed the grandest songs ever written, including two music plays of unequalled beauty.
