Thyāgarāja Aradhana

Thyāgarāja Aradhana, a significant event in the world of Carnatic music, is celebrated annually on the Pushya Bahula Panchami day, honoring "Saint Thyāgarāja" by singing Pancharatna Krithis.

An 18th-century composer, Saint Thyāgarāja's invaluable contribution to Carnatic music is characterized by spiritual depth and melodic beauty. He began his journey in music at the tender age of 13 by composing his first song and two unrivaled musical plays. He saw music as a path to feel God's love.
